Debtor(s) are responsible for curing deficiencies. The responsibility for preparing, submitting, and monitoring a complete filing rests with the filer(s). Do not rely on the Clerk's office to alert you regarding deficient case filings.

Please note: This case may be dismissed without further notice or hearing if the above document(s) are not timely filed with the Court. For individual debtors, a completed statement of compliance with the credit counseling requirement, (Exhibit D), must be submitted with the petition together with the Certificate of Credit Counseling (if required). If Official Form D states that the debtor is not required to receive a credit counseling briefing due to incapacity, disability or because the debtor is on active military duty in a military combat zone, it must be accompanied by a motion.
